MEMORANDUM FOR: Inspector General

SUBJECT : Abstracts of Materials Provided for the Select Committees

1. The White House has requested that all CIA documents submitted there for review and clearance be accompanied by an abstract in accordance with the attached format.

2. Mr. Elder already has provided such abstracts for the histories which have been requested by the Senate Select Committee Staff, and the IC Staff has prepared abstracts on studies and reports listed in Part II of the 12 March request from the Senate Select Committee.

3. The IC Staff will ensure that abstracts are prepared on the materials which you already have cleared and which may not have already been submitted to the White House. Abstracts have been requested from other elements of the Intelligence Community in order that the Registry we have established will have a complete record of the responses from the various elements of the Community to the Committee.

4. It is requested that your office arrange with the Directorates so that from here on an abstract will come forward to us with the clearance form which you provide concerning the releasability of requested materials.

STATINTL
